KEYNOTE:

What Your Signature Says About Your Personality (Keynote)

In today's complex, new economy, it's essential for employees to gain awareness of their weaknesses and their true strengths to do their best work every day. This compelling and relevant keynote experience challenges us to identify where we are strong and where we may need to improve. With instant, renewed self-awareness, audiences will be able to deploy their strengths and gifts wisely to avoid them becoming potential liabilities. Once they do so, they will be re-awakened to new possibilities. As an option, guests will have an opportunity to get a one-on-one speed handwriting analysis done. [\[morelink\]](#)

Trade Shows & Customization

Notice how in this composite photo example, the sentence to be completed by the individual is customized to reflect the host client and their business, industry, etc. Further, in utilizing the host company's letterhead stationary, it not only makes for an excellent promotional/marketing tool, but also by virtue of the letterhead stationary, guests always remember who provided this very memorable form of entertainment. This is also a very effective promotional/marketing tool for trade show vendors as Elaine will draw traffic to your booth.

Please note: Elaine Charal's services are provided for entertainment purposes only. She is NOT a forensic graphologist & does not provide those types of services.
